Moderato, with a beat

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, key of G major (one sharp), and common time (C). The tempo is marked 'Moderato, with a beat'. The score consists of seven lines of music, each with a corresponding line of lyrics. Chord symbols (G, G7, C, D7, Cm) are placed above the staff to indicate harmonic accompaniment. The melody features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. The lyrics are: 'They say you've found some-bo-dy new, But that won't stop my lov-in' you, I just can't let you walk a - way. For-get the love I had for you, Guess I could find some-bo-dy too, But I don't want no-one but you. How could you leave with-out re - gret? Am I that ea-sy to for - get? Be-fore you leave be sure to find, You want her love much his more than mine, 'cause I'll just say we've ne-ver met, If I'm that ea-sy to for-get. They say you've found some-bo-dy -get.'

1. Have you seen the old man in the closed down mar-ket, kick-ing up the pa-pers with his worn out shoes? In his eyes you see no pride, hand held loose-ly by his side, — Yes-ter-day's pa-per tell-ing yes - ter-day's news. — So Chorus
 how can you tell me you're lone - ly, And say for you — that the sun don't shine? — Let me take — you by the hand, — and lead you through — the streets of Lon-don. I'll show you some-thing to make you change your mind. —

2. Have you seen the old girl who walks the streets of London,
 Dirt in her hair and her clothes in rags?
 She's no time for talking, she just keeps right on walking,
 Carrying her home in two carrier bags. (to Chorus)
3. In the all night cafe at a quarter past eleven,
 Same old man sitting there on his own,
 Looking at the world over the rim of his teacup,
 Each tea lasts an hour, and he wanders home alone. (to Chorus)
4. Have you seen the old man outside the seaman's mission, Memory fading with the medal ribbons that he wears?
 In our winter city the rain cries a little pity,
 For one more forgotten hero and a world that doesn't care. (to Chorus)

What the world needs now is love, sweet love

It's the on-ly thing — that there's just too lit-tle of — What the world needs now is love, sweet love, No, not just for some — But for ev - 'ry one. — Lord, we don't need an - oth - er moun - tain — mead - ow —

— There are moun tains — and hill - sides e - nought to climb — There are — There are corn - fields — and wheat-fields e - nought to grow — There are o - ceans — and ri - vers e - nought to cross — e - nought to last — till the end of sun-beams — and moon-beams e - nought to shine — Oh, lis - ten Lord — if you want to time — What the know —

ev - 'ry, ev - 'ry - one. —

Moderato

Where is the love — you said you'd give to me, — soon as Where is the love — you said was mine, all mine, — till the you were free? — Will it ev - er be? — Where is the love? — end of time? — Was it just a lie? — Where is the love? —

You told me that you did - n't love him, —
If you had had a sud - den change of heart
Oh, how I wish I'd nev - er met you, —

And you were gon - na say good - bye. — But if you real - ly did - n't
I wish that you would tell me so. — Don't leave me hang - ing on to I guess it must have been my fate, — To fall in love with some - one prom - is - es, — You've got to let me know.

el - se's love, — All I can do is wait.

Do do do do — do do do do — do do do do do do do do, — Do do do do — do do do do — do do. — Where is the love,

Where is the love, — Where is the love, — Where is the love? —

WHO CAN I TURN TO (WHEN NOBODY NEEDS ME)

Words and Music by LESLIE BRICUSSE &
ANTHONY NEWLEY

Moderately

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, key of E-flat major (three flats), and 4/4 time. It consists of ten staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words spanning across bar lines. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at various points. The score includes a repeat sign at the beginning of the first staff and a double bar line with first and second endings at the end of the tenth staff.

Who can I turn to ——— when no - bo - dy needs me,

My heart wants to know, and so I must go where des - ti - ny leads me,

With no star to guide me, ——— and no - one be - side me,

I'll go on my way, and af - ter the day, the dark - ness will hide me.

And may - be to - mor - row ——— I'll find what I'm af - ter,

I'll throw off my sor - row, beg, steal or bor - row my share of laugh - ter,

With you I could learn to, ——— With you on a new day,

But who can I turn to if you turn a -
